JEFF THOMSEN

Q. How does it feel being a club pro and having a great opening day?

JEFF THOMSEN: Well, every day's opening day. My clubs don't know I'm a club pro. My club's don't know it's hot.

So I played well today. I'm happy to shoot an opening round under par.

I just played well. It was a nice day and the wind laid down, still coming out of the southeast, but I am happy with the way I played.

Q. Were there any highlight holes for you?

JEFF THOMSEN: Not really, just really steady. I chipped in for a birdie on number 6 from in front of the green or number 5, I think. So that was nice. I was maybe staring at a potential par or bogey, so that was nice.

Q. What are your expectations for the rest of the tournament?

JEFF THOMSEN: My expectations are to just keep executing good golf shots and make good decisions and play as smart as I can and hopefully Sunday that will be good enough.

GARY ROBISON

Q. How was the tournament out there today?

GARY ROBISON: Good. It was hot. It played pretty much like it had in the practice round, I guess. The wind was pretty much the same.

Q. Were there any standout shots?

GARY ROBISON: Yeah, I hit quite a few good shots. It's just I just had one bad hole. I made 8 on the third hole. The par-5 I hit it out of bounds and besides that, I played pretty good. So I'm pleased with everything but one shot.

Q. What are your expectations for the rest of the week?

GARY ROBISON: Just try to play as good as we can tomorrow and hopefully make a cut and start moving up.

MIKE SMITH

Q. How was the course today?

MIKE SMITH: It was hot. Brutally hot. The course was great though. It's in perfect shape and there wasn't as much wind as there has been in the practice rounds, so it didn't seem to play as hard as it did in the practice rounds.

Q. You did really well, were there any standout shots from your day?

MIKE SMITH: Oh, I played good. I did everything fairly good. I missed a short putt there on the last hole that I wish I would have made. But I'm happy with 70 today.

Q. What are your expectations for the rest of the week?

MIKE SMITH: Oh, just to keep on doing what I'm doing right now and trying to stay as cool as possible and not exert too much energy, save a little bit for the weekend.
