DARREN CLARKE

Q. Darren, 77 to 66; what changed?

DARREN CLARKE: Not an awful lot. I just knocked a couple of putts in. As I said at the start of the week, I'm playing okay. You know, just wasn't able to turn the score in. My good yesterday wasn't that good, whereas my good today was really good.

Q. You had to break 70 make the cut. Did you go out with a different attitude?

DARREN CLARKE: Yeah, I suppose a little bit. I had to go out and play and just work on the same things that I was working on yesterday. You know, I made a couple of silly doubles. I made three silly doubles yesterday, just really throwing shots away, not intentionally but I made a stupid double-bogey on the 18th hole for 77, which didn't make my dinner taste any good.

I have a couple of things I'm working on, and today, 66 was about as many as I could have taken. I had a lot of chances and I'm pretty pleased with it.

Q. You're a confidence player; does this one round turn you around?

DARREN CLARKE: I think so. 77 I was a bit down in the dumps to say the least, last night. I'm just working away but it was nice to go out and play on a difficult golf course and shoot 4-under par. So hopefully, as I've said, I'm on the right road again and put some good results in.
