

Spectator Guide

The PGA of America and Southern Hills Country Club are dedicated to providing an outstanding spectator experience for all 89th PGA Championship guests. Please assist us by observing proper golf etiquette and decorum. This includes drinking alcoholic beverages responsibly, obeying the marshals, never running, applauding good shots and acting in a considerate manner toward all PGA Championship contestants and fellow patrons.

Thank you and enjoy the event!

Admission Policy:

There will be no daily re-admission to the grounds of the PGA Championship. If you leave the grounds, you must have a full ticket to return to the PGA Championship. Once the bottom of the ticket has been removed or scanned, it will no longer provide admission to the PGA Championship. The only exception is when the Weather Warning signs are posted, which requires an evacuation of the golf course. Please wear your ticket in plain view at all times as security personnel will not allow admission to the PGA Championship for individuals without appropriate credentials.

Autograph Policy:

Autographs may be requested and given at the player's convenience at the Practice Range and Putting Green during the Practice Rounds, (Monday, August 6 through Wednesday, August 8, 2007.)
